

Please join Husch Blackwell for an informative half-day program focusing on timely labor and employment issues.

Topics

- Employment Law Update
- Protecting your business interests in the age of Facebook and LinkedIn
- OFCCP enforcement priorities: is your organization at risk?
- Furloughs, part-time, and lay-offs: ensuring your “cost-cutting” steps do not bankrupt your business
- Department of Labor working overtime: the agency’s new enforcement strategy
- Preparing for trial: Can your company defend itself under the MHRA?

When

Tuesday, September 28, 2010

Time

8:00 a.m. - Registration

8:30 a.m. - Program

Noon - Adjourn

Seminar Venue

The Intercontinental Kansas City at the Plaza

401 Ward Parkway

Kansas City, MO 64112

Credit Information

Missouri and Kansas CLE credit is pending. HR Certification Institute recertification credit is also pending.

RSVP

This program is complimentary; however, registration is required. RSVP by September 21, 2010 to Shana Hoy at rsvp-kc@huschblackwell.com or 816.983.8809.

For more information about this event and other Husch Blackwell LLP events, please visit our website at www.huschblackwell.com