
ABOUT OUR ATTORNEYS

Employers face unprecedented exposure to workplace regulation and legal entanglement with employees. Husch Blackwell Sanders' Labor & Employment practice group is anchored by experienced attorneys who have guided employers, from start-up businesses to Fortune 500 companies, regionally and nationally, in labor and employment matters. Our group's extensive knowledge base of employment and labor matters ensures consistently high-quality advice and representation. Years of experience gained through successful representation of long-standing corporate clients have given our labor and employment lawyers the well-earned reputation for pragmatism, responsiveness and client-oriented results.

REGISTRATION

This seminar is complimentary, however, registration is requested because seating is limited.

RSVP by October 13, 2009, to Stephanie Dorssom at rsvp-sl@huschblackwell.com or 314.345.6646.

CREDIT INFORMATION

3.8 Missouri CLE, 3.0 Illinois CLE
HR Certification Institute recertification credit is pending.

AGENDA

-
- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 8:30-8:35am | Welcome & Introduction
Brad Hiles |
| 8:35-9:20am | The Importance of Documentation: Application Do's & Don'ts, Offer Letters and Performance Evaluations
Bob Tomaso & Laura Staley |
| 9:20-10:00am | The Benefit of Hindsight: How Employers and Courts Have Been Dealing With the Changes to the FMLA and ADA
Kate Heideman & Randy Thompson |
| 10:00-10:30am | An Employer's Response to the H1N1 Influenza Pandemic
Jack Yates |
| 10:30-10:45am | BREAK |
| 10:45-11:15am | Recent Developments & Case Law Update
Joe Glynias & Terry Potter |
| 11:15-11:45am | Legal Considerations of Pre-Employment Screenings and Post-Employment References in the Age of Online Social Networking
David Schenberg & Jessica Conlon |
| 11:45am-Noon | Q&A, Closing Remarks, Drawing
Brad Hiles |
-